"The Store Where Quality Counts"

To-morrow's Wirthmor Day

- In our store, as well as in many hundreds of other good stores throughout the length and breadth of the country, to-morrow will be WIRTHMOR DAY.

- It is the day on which the smart, new models in the nationally favored and deservedly popular Wirthmor Waists go on sale, at the same, low, uniform, economy-effecting price.

- It's the creed of the Wirthmor makers, as it is the creed of the Wirthmor stores wherein these far-famed Waists are sold, to "Keep prices as low as you can as long as you can." And it is in rigid adherence to that creed that the Wirthmor is still obtainable at the present low prices.
